CURB REPORTER

We are home after a very interesting trip. Saturday's Bulletin left us at Jacksonville, Fla., at the Geo. Washington Hotel on G. W. Birthday. We were guests of the King Edward Cigar officials at breakfast. They took us through their big plant and showed us how cigars are made and gave each of us a small package of 10 cigars. Modern machinery is doing remarkable things to speed up production. But the most attractive thing of all was the company nursery where the little children of the mothers who work in the factory are kept for 24 hours each day. They have nurses, doctors, teachers, all kinds of school and play equipment. The children were so pretty and healthy looking that they reminded me of a Mellen's Baby Food Ad. Some day this system will be universal. Some of the mayors with little children back home got awfully homesick The Brunswick, Ga. Board of Trade entertained us with a luncheon at the Oglethorpe hotel and then took us in private cars on a tour to the beautiful drives and homes on St. Simons and Sea Island where we visited old Fort Frederica where the English and Spanish fought for possession of Georgia. This area looks much like Florida except the large trees with hanging moss grow close to the

Finnish Fighting Forces Have State Leader

George Walter Hill of Durham, N. C., is the state chairman of the organization known as Fighting Funds for Finland, Inc., which is seeking money to give to Finland for the purchase of arms or any other equipment she needs in her war with Russia. The national chairman is Major General John F. O'Rvan of New York. Some people believe that if money is not raised to help Finland fight she will not be able to use the relief money.
