

Interesting Chapel Program

The Fifth Grade will give a chapel program on Thursday March 7 at 12:00 noon in the Try-on auditorium.

Some of the pupils who have read more than 20 books will introduce some of the books they have read by reading exciting selections from the books. The pupils who will read are: Douglas Helms from "Toby Tyler", Julia Lankford from "French Twins", Virginia Henry from "Diddie, Dumps and Tot", Janet Derby from "Miss Minerva and William Hill", Julian Capps from "Smoky", and Gilette Ballew from "Missing Chums."

Margaret Sprague will render two violin numbers: "Serenade Espagnol" by Chaminade, and "Faithful Forever."

She will be accompanied by Anne Clark.

Janet Derby will play a piano solo—Jolly Darkies, by Karl Bechter.

Allison Martin will sing a vocal solo, "God Bless America", by Irving Berlin.

The Blue Ridge Weavers offer you the opportunity of inspecting and purchasing the handiwork of the Native crafts of the Southern mountains. Here, assembled with great care and in real appreciation of the true beauty and natural artistic expression of these mountain folk, you will find the most complete collection of every form of mountain handicraft—from tiny carved animals to tavern tables, from a lovely necktie to the homespun for a suit, from the dainty cocktail napkin to coverlets for the bed. You will be most agreeably impressed by this unusually wide variety of articles for your own use or as gifts.

Every gift is packed in a gift box with expert care and shipped according to your directions. Our mail shipments to all parts of the country is a special feature of the service rendered by us. t
