Great Progress Made In Welfare Work

The Polk County Council of Social Agencies met in Missildine Hall Tuesday afternoon with Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln presiding. Representatives were present from the Helping Hand, the American Women's Hospitals, the County Department of Public Welfare, the County Department of Public Health, and the Red Cross. After reports from Mrs. David L. Edsall, secretary, and Miss Mae Irene Flentye, treasurer of the council, a report from the committee on financing the work of the Helping Hand and the American Women's Hospitals, Mrs. John Washburn, chairman, revealed that its recent letter campaign had brought good results but that more contributions were needed to reach the $1,500 necessary to support the work of these two indispensable organizations. Rev. W. P. Jackson, chairman of the Recreation committee, reported excellent results in recreation work in the County and stated that the group of young people from over the County would be in the gymnasium of the Tryon high school for instructional work tonight. Further plans for advancing the recreational instruction are under consideration. Miss Flentye stated that rock and shell had been put on the driveway leading to the Katherine Beatson Health House; and the Council instructed the secretary to express its appreciation to Road Commissioner T. Max Watson and others instrumental in this work. Social
