CURB REPORTER

These are busy times in Tryon. Please get your ads and propaganda to the Bulletin office the day before publication when possible. As small as this little paper is we can print only two pages at a time and we start printing as early as possible each day . . . Tommy Marshall, student at Taft School says a poll of the most popular papers was taken at his school recently and the New York Times was first, the Herald-Tribune second, and The Tryon Daily Bulletin third . . . Philo Higley is working on some radio skits at his home in Gillette Woods . . . A colored boy standing tests for firemanship at the Boy Scout Court of Honor on Tuesday said one reason water was good for putting out fires was because it was wet . . . Bob Thompson head of the news bureau N. C. Conservation & Development Department, was in town the other day and took pictures of the big wooden horse mounted by pretty Betty Mead. One of the pictures was taken just as a train pulled in giving a good contrast showing the size of the horse. These pictures will be used by the state in papers all over the country . . . This W. N. C. Mayors' Tour is crystallizing into a permanent organization. The group was entertained royally at Asheville last Saturday. We were guests of the
