

Tryon Hounds In Hunter Trials

From portable seats placed in the terraced yards of the famous old LeMort Chateau in the hunting Country more than 500 riding and hunt fans saw the Tryon hounds stage their annual hunter trials on Wednesday afternoon.

Winners in the first, or amateur class were announced as follows:

First, Mrs. E. H. Bennett of Tryon and Lake Forest, Ill., on "Vicky"; second place was claimed by Miss Betty White of Clark's Summit, Pa., and Tryon on "Ethiopia;" third place was won by Mrs. David Hedekin of Tryon, on "Salome," fourth place was taken by Walter C. Hill of Tryon, on "Carolina."

In the second, or professional class, Lee Cowan of Tryon and Neenah, Wis., rode to first honors on "Lindby"; second place was won by George Webster of Tryon and Neenah, Wis., on "General Alarm;" third, Arthur Reynolds of Tryon, riding "Flaxman;" fourth place was taken by Lee Cowan, on "Last Reef."

The winners in heats of both classes were awarded trophies and ribbons. The judge for the trials was Mrs. Becky Lanier Trimpi of Pluckimin, R. I., who came by plane to be here for the occasion. Mrs. Trimpi is the granddaughter of the late poet Sidney Lanier, who died near Tryon.

Mrs. Lanier herself is a devoted rider and hunter, owns her own pack of hounds and is the world's champion blue ribbon winner having won 67 blue ribbons in a single year riding her famous hunter "Silvercrest."

The hunter trials were given under the auspices of the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club. The general committee with M. B. (Lefty) Flynn as chairman was composed of Captain Rufus Zogbaum, C. J. Lynch, and Carter P. Brown. The program committee consisted of Miss Sallie Coe, Mrs. George Brannon and Mrs. Donrue Leighton. Paddock in charge of Horace Newman.

At Kiwanis Tuesday

Nelson Jackson, Jr., gave an interesting talk on the cotton goods business on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. P. L. Barnette had charge of the program.

Six rooms. Stone house. Ten acres—in north Pacolet Valley, $8,000.

* * * *

Six rooms. Steam heat, panoramic view. Three blocks from Trade Street. Two acre site, $6,000.

* * * *

380 acres farm. Wonderful old brick home. Century-old boxwoods. Equipped for dairy or stock farming.

* * * *

For Quick Sale: 1½ story log House. Lynn road. 4 bedrooms; 2 baths; living room; dining room; kitchen. Front and rear screened porches, $5,000.

W. M. HESTER

Phone 37 or 202

Your
ELECTRICAL APPLIANCE NEEDS

Are available here in Tryon. Our prices on electrical appliances are those recommended by the manufacturers.

In the electrical appliance lines we handle the following Nationally known products: Universal, Hotpoint, Westinghouse and General Electric.

AVANT

Electric Co.

Telephone 51