Jr. Horsemanship Show Classes Given

The Junior Horsemanship Show will be held at the ring near Vaughan's Creek on Newmarket Road at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, March 26th.

There will be four classes, some for beginners and some for advanced riders.

Class No. 1: Horsemanship. Open to children who have never won a ribbon in a horsemanship class (lead rein not to count).

Class No. 2: Horsemanship. In this class more advanced knowledge of riding will be required. Open to children not eligible for Class No. 1.

Class No. 3: Beginners Jumping. Simple course of four jumps inside ring in addition to being judged on proper position on horse. Required to answer four questions on horse or equipment.

Class No. 4: Jumping over outside course. Open to children who have hunted or who are capable of hunting. To be judged on ability to handle mount, knowledge of etiquette in hunting field and to answer questions pertaining to hunting.

Phone your entries to Mrs. Hedekin at phone No. 286. We want all children 18 years and under to come out. There will be no entry fees and no admission charge for spectators.

HONORED AT MONTREAT

Friday's Asheville Citizen carries an attractive picture of Miss Anne Scruggs of Tryon who was recently elected May Queen at Montreat College.

Weigel House Bought By the Knights

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Knight of Green River, Vermont, have purchased the W. B. Weigel house on Lynn road, and will take possession in the fall. Mr. Weigel, who has been ill at Allentown, Pa., will arrive in Tryon soon to spend the summer. The sale was made thru E. Perry Manville. The Weigel place has been noted for its great variety of wild and cultivated flowers. Mr. Weigel who has travelled extensively has imported many flowers from foreign countries and put them in his garden. Mr. Knight is a retired patent lawyer of New York.

Presbyterians Elected Officers Thursday

The Tryon Presbyterian church held its annual meeting and supper on Thursday night. After interesting reports were read from the various committees, the following officers were elected for the new year: J. S. Kell and Jack Gaze, elders; G. I. Henderson and Robert Dick, deacons; W. A. Schilleter, treasurer; Mrs. J. S. Kell, treasurer of benevolences; G. I. Henderson, superintendent of Sunday school. Robert Dick, assistant superintendent.

Bids will be opened April 4th in Raleigh, N. C., for grading, concrete paving, and structures on 1.02 miles of Route 176 from Tryon to South Carolina line.
