The Blue Ridge Weavers offer you the opportunity of inspecting and purchasing the handiwork of the Native crafts of the Southern mountains. Here, assembled with great care and in real appreciation of the true beauty and natural artistic expression of these mountain folk, you will find the most complete collection of every form of mountain handicraft—from tiny carved animals to tavern tables, from a lovely necktie to the homespun for a suit, from the dainty cocktail napkin to coverlets for the bed. You will be most agreeably impressed by this unusually wide variety of articles for your own use or as gifts.

Every gift is packed in a gift box with expert care and shipped according to your directions. Our mail shipments to all parts of the country is a special feature of the service rendered by us.
