Gymkhana Thursday At Harmon Field

The annual Spring Gymkhana, the burlesque horse event of the season, will be held at Harmon Field on Thursday afternoon beginning at 2:30.

A variety of entertaining events are being planned including keg and can race, nursery, night shirt, mule, mule polo, musical chairs and Gretna Green races. Roy Shelley will also present his trained trick pony, Spot, for added entertainment.

Lewis Bredin of Detroit will be the chairman of the Gymkhana and he will be assisted by the following committee: Lefty Flynn, of Little Orchard; Rufus Zogbaum, of Mizzen Top; Mrs. Franklin Parker, of New York and the Cotton Patch; Miss Betty White of Clark's Summit, Pa., and Many Levels; Arthur Reynolds of the Tryon Hounds; Mrs. D. D. Hedekin of Atlanta and Blackberry Hill; Mrs. James A. Blackwood of Detroit and the Hunting Country; Mrs. Sam Abernathy of Bronxville, N. Y., and Burnt Chimney; Ernst Mahler of Neenah, Wis., and Chinquapin Farm; Walter C. Hill of Saginaw, Mich., and Many Levels.

Promptness Asked On Horse Show Reservations

Chairman George A. Cathey, of the Reservations Committee asks that all those who have made reservations for the 15th Annual Tryon Horse & Hound Show come in and pay for these reservations at once. In doing this, they will help to avoid mistakes and a last minute rush.

Junior Horsemanship Show Held Tuesday

The second annual Tryon Junior Horsemanship show was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Newmarket ring before an interested crowd of spectators from many sections of the country including some visitors on their spring vacations from college and school. Tryon Boy Scouts parked approximately 50 cars.

The show was directed by Mrs. David Hedekin and the Judges were Lewis Bredin and Mrs. James A. Blackwood, both of Detroit, who were assisted by Miss Betty White of Clark's Summit, Pa., as secretary. C. J. Lynch was ringmaster and Arthur Reynolds had charge of the entries. The judges did a thorough job of testing each child individually, marking them not only on their proficiency in riding but upon their knowledge of horse and equipment.

Ribbons and trophies were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Mahler and were presented to the winners by Mrs. Mahler.

The results were as follows:

Class No. 1, Horsemanship—1st place, Tommy Carpenter, Minneapolis, Minn.; 2nd, Mollie Washburn, Tryon; 3rd, Franklin Delano Nanne, Tryon; 4th, Deborah Wilson, Tryon.

Also riding in this class was Alan Kuykendall, of Tryon, who was not only the youngest contestant, but also the newest rider, for this was the second time that he had ever been on a horse.

Class No. 2, Horsemanship—1st, Peter Mahler, Neenah, Wis.; 2nd,
