CURB REPORTER

Have just finished eating some apples from Albert Salley's Apple Valley at Saluda. The unusual thing about these apples is that they are good without having been on cold storage. The air at Saluda is so cool throught the warm periods of this section that Mr. Salley can keep his apples in a large storage basement which also protects the fruit against winter weather . . . . Farmers Federation have given permission to the Town to have automobiles parked on their vacant lot across the railroad during the showings of Gone With The Wind. Chief Kiser states that the Town officers are glad to cooperate with the public . . . The two-ball mixed foursome golf tournament scheduled at the Tryon Country Club on Friday should be interesting. Every player starts with a handicap, but he or she as the case may be will have selected drives if you know what that means. If Mr. Brown and Miss Smith are playing as partners and Miss Smith drives a ball to better position and it is Mr. Brown's time to play he can play from her position and let the caddy look for his ball in the creek or rough and other places golfers drive balls. The tournament on Friday will be for nine holes . . . That was a nice picnic on Wednesday given
