At Horse Show Ball

The Horse Show ball, which will take place Tuesday night, preceding the annual Horse and Hound show at Oak Hall, will be featured by a floor show by pupils of Eleanor Moffet.

Patsy Davis, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert G. Davis of Trotter place, will present a song and dance number, "The Little Fox," which will be in keeping with the theme of the ball. She will wear a "pink coat" and hunting outfit. She will also do "Chatterbox."

A varied program will be presented including a French Can-Can number, a Spanish tap selection, an Oriental acrobatic dance and dance done to a medley of southern songs including "Way Down Upon the Swanee River", "Old Kentucky Home" and others. Dancers will wear hoop skirts and period costumes. The show will close with "Anchors Aweigh" with dancers in cellophane sailor outfits.

Bill Stringfellow's Buccaneer orchestra will provide music for the occasion.

Those who will participate in the dancing will be Ernest Green, Patsy Davis, Betty Green, Irma Frances Jeter, Libby Izen, Nancy Ramsey and Edna Gibbs, who will do solo numbers.

Also Eloise Martin, Edith White, Nancy Shaw Green, Geneva Gibbs, who will lead group numbers; Barbara Loughran, Ann Wallace, Elaine Briggs, Rachel Brown and Mary Lloyd Brown who will dance in various chorus selections.

Judges and out-of-town exhibitors will be guests.—Asheville Citizen.

DISTRICT ROTARIANS TO MEET AT HICKORY

Hickory, April 12.—Plans are rapidly shaping for the entertainment in Hickory April 28-30 of Rotarians from the forty-eight Clubs of the 190th district, Rotary-International.

President E. Perry Manville, Vice President B. G. Henry and Senator F. P. Bacon compose the Tryon committee rounding up delegates to the convention.

Dr. Amos O. Squire, Ossing, N. Y., former member of the international board of directors, is scheduled for one of the principal addresses, according to Joseph R. Sandifer of Hendersonville, who is district governor.

Other outstanding speakers include T. Dewey Truluck, president of the Union, S. C., Rotary Club; Rev. Arthur V. Gibson of Sanford, governor of the 188th district; Christie Benet, Columbia, S. C.; Hal Kohn, of Newberry, S. C.; Dr. Julian S. Miller, editor of the Charlotte Observer; Leland N. Edmunds of Aiken, S. C.; John W. Arrington, Jr., of Greenville, S. C.; Howard Mahon, Greenville; Peter K. Emmons, Scranton, Pa.; T. W. Thornhill, Charleston, S. C.; Guy Houck, Franklin, S. C.

The conference will open with a sacred concert by the Lenoir Rhyne College choir Sunday evening, April 28th. Registration will get underway early Monday and the final session will be a farewell luncheon Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

The banquet, which will highlight the conference, is set for 7:30 o'clock Monday evening. The governor's ball will follow.
