The Horse and Hound Show

For results of prize winners in the 15th annual Horse and Hound Show we refer our readers to the Spartanburg, Asheville and Charlotte newspapers which today are publishing pictures and four columns of news about the event.

The weather was perfect; the scenery was beautiful and the largest crowd in the history of the show covered Harmon Field. They were there from nearly every State in the Union.

Hundreds of details were so smoothly handled that an outsider would never dream that volunteer help from citizens and visitors were running the show. Year after year the Riding & Hunt Club iron out wrinkles and make improvements. For days and weeks ahead plans had been made by the officers of the show. Each committee knew its duty, and the operation of the show is a tribute to the spirit of cooperation of all those having a part in making the event such a big success.

GARDEN PILGRIMAGE MONDAY AND TUESDAY

The annual garden Pilgrimage by the Garden Club Council of Spartanburg will be held on Monday and Tuesday, April 22-23.

This year in addition to the well known gardens of Mrs. L. J. Blake, Mrs. A. M. Chreitzberg, Mrs. H. F. Chreitzberg, Mrs. Jesse Cleveland among others a number of new gardens will be open this year. The tour is to include 26 gardens and the most convenient routes will be clearly marked for the benefit of out-of-town guests.

Lum Dimsdale, 85 Burned To Death

No inquest is planned into the death early Wednesday morning of Lum Dimsdale, 85-year-old resident of the Cooper's Gap section of Polk County.

Mr. Dimsdale apparently lost his life when he reentered his burning dwelling after assisting his wife, who is blind, to safety.

Neighbors, who were attracted to the scene by the blaze, found Mrs. Dimsdale alone in a near-by field, and found the charred remains of her husband in the ashes of the burned building.

Funeral arrangements had not been announced Wednesday night.

Surviving are one sister, Miss Dora Dimsdale, of Rutherfordton, and one brother, J. P. Dimsdale, of Cooper's Gap.
