Pilgrims All!

The North Carolina Garden Club pilgrims are abroad in the land, and Tryon is on the list for next week, 23-24.

The pilgrimage started in the eastern part of the State during March. The season there being more advanced—and it culminates in Asheville and the surrounding country, the dates being the same as for Tryon.

The Tryon Garden Club has many lovely gardens, but the one of outstanding beauty and spacious proportions is that of Mrs. Julian Calhoun, who has kindly offered to open her garden to visitors on both days from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Garden Club sanctuary at Pearson's Falls will also be open and members of the Club will be there to welcome the visiting pilgrims. As all Tryon people know, it is near the Asheville highway, five miles from Tryon. A sign on the road directs visitors to the entrance gate.

A fee of 25c will be collected at each place for state conservation work. Visitors are asked to register.

Did You Send A Check?

If you have sent a check or pledge to St. Luke's hospital association and have not had an acknowledgement of same, wont you kindly notify B. L. Ballenger, treasurer.

Farmers of Polk Receive Checks

Many Polk County farmers are receiving their Agricultural Conservation checks for their compliance during 1939. Up to the present time 646 farms have received $25,383.54 for their Agricultural Conservation work during last year. There are about $15,000 more to come from Washington.

In addition to the above $40,000 for conservation work cotton farmers have received $24,053.12 as a cotton parity payment. All payments going to the farmers in Polk County through the County Agent's office will amount to about $60,000 or $70,000 for the year of 1939.

Thank You!

Tryon's Fifteenth Annual Horse Show has come and gone, and it was a grand success from every standpoint. Its greatest success is its continuance as a community affair. The harmony and cooperation of committeemen, exhibitors, and spectators is just another phase of the Tryon spirit. It is what makes us all realize that Tryon is unusually blessed with friendliness, diversity of interest, and love of doing things well.

I want to thank all of Tryon. in behalf of the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club, for this successful sporting event.

Carter P. Brown,
President Tryon Riding & Hunt Club.
