Tennis Tournament Next Week

The annual spring Men's Tennis Tournament at the Tryon Country Club will be held next week. Men's singles contests will be held for the J. C. Kimberly trophy; and Men's doubles matches will be played for the Lightner and Crapo trophies.

Those interested in getting in the tournament should notify John L. Washburn by Sunday, if possible.

Bacon Diocesan Delegate

Senator F. P. Bacon, Senior Warden of the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon, who attended the Western North Carolina Episcopal Diocese convention at Valle Crucis this week, was elected a Diocesan delegate to the General convention which meets in Kansas City in the fall.

Register Today !

All persons of voting age are urged to register today, if possible, at their respective precincts. Chairman Roy Baisden of the Board of Elections wishes to emphasize that this is a new registration, and that all persons must register if they wish to vote in the primary of May 25th.

Baseball Today

The Adams-Millis baseball team will meet the Enka team of the W. N. C. I. League at Harmon Field this afternoon at 3 o'clock.
