

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1940

Republican Candidate for Governor Coming to Polk County on Saturday

John R. Hoffman, prominent lawyer of Burlington, and candidate for Governor of North Carolina on the Republican ticket will address the voters of Polk County on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the courthouse in Columbus. The public is invited to hear him.

SPARTANBURG HAS FLOWER SHOW

The annual Spartanburg Flower Show will be held Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3, at the Armory on the corners of St. John and Liberty streets with the doors opening on the show the first day at 3 p. m. Friday morning the show will open at 10 a. m.

The show this year boasts of a plant clinic with Mrs. A. M. Chreitzberg in charge of the clinic and with two specialists present to diagnose and to treat the plants brought to the clinic.

Move Here from Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cunningham of Evanston, Ill., have arrived in Tryon and have leased the A. W. Brintnall cottage for a year.

MAY FAIRY

Miss Bell Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Jackson Tryon, has been chosen as one of the fairies in the May Day program which will be held at Averett college on May 4th.

The Christian Science Wednesday meeting will be held this evening at the Lanier Library at 8 o'clock. Everyone invited.

CURB REPORTER

Ray Farthing says the road crew working below Sunnysdale has a cute little "steam" shovel digging a new creek bed for the stream that runs below the road. Says its more interesting than the big shovel . . . Dr. John van Schaick, Jr., of Washington, D. C., who visited Tryon recently and went on one of Major Sharp's trips distributing magazines to isolated people in the rural sections of the County, was so impressed by this social welfare work that when he went back to Washington he shipped about 100 pounds of old magazines to the Major. Anyone having old magazines that they are through with may leave them at the Bulletin office or send directly to Major Sharp . . . Chas. Nessmith reports that Rebecca is coming to the Tryon Theatre on May 13th for three days . . . Arnold Gaines has seen what he thinks is a believe it or not. A large dogwood limb fell to the ground and a new tree grew up from the limb which rotted from the mother tree . . . Henry Reich of Bay Pines, Fla., writes in the St. Petersburg Times about a ground rattler snake biting a man and then diving; but the man suffered no ill effects. . . . A number of winter guests who made their plans to stay in Tryon through April have stated that next year they will plan to stay through the month of May.

Continued on Back Page.