TRYON SAW "THE KING RIDES BY" FRIDAY

A full house witnessed the annual Tryon high school Senior class play, "The King Rides By" on Friday night at the school auditorium. The play was directed by Miss Myrtle Baldwin, class teacher, and the staging was attractively and effectively arranged. Miss Ethel Rushing as the former wife of Judge Dorset, stole the show, and the students were pleased with the performance of Charles Ford as Stuff, a gangster's henchman. Sixteen Seniors took part in producing the play.

Democratic Precincts To Meet This Afternoon

All Democratic precincts in North Carolina will meet today. There will be 1,912 such meetings. Six of them will be in Polk County at 3 p. m. The meeting in Tryon will be held at the voting place in the old Town Hall on Maple street. The purpose of the meeting today will be to elect five precinct committeemen, one of whom must be a woman. This committee will elect the precinct chairman, vice-chairman and secretary. The precinct meeting will also elect 37 delegates to the County Convention which meets next week, Saturday, May 11th, in Columbus Court House at 2 p. m. Delegates are more important this time than usual on account of the third term angle. Under a compromise plan Governor Hoey has been won over to help swing the North Carolina delegation to Roosevelt.
