

The Book and Garden Club's anticipating with much pleasure their meeting for Wednesday . . . they all motor up to Pearson's Falls near Tryon for the morning and back to Tryon for luncheon . . . meeting at Mrs. Ben Montgomery's at 11 for the start.—Spartanburg Herald

C. J. Lynch, Sam Bingham, Sr., and Sam Bingham, Jr., have returned from Atlanta where they attended the Atlanta Horse Show. They report a good time and fine show, in which Mrs. Hedekin took part, riding Tony, the army horse which won first place here. Mr. Lynch reports that the Atlanta reception committee was very hospitable and many of the people there had heard much about Tryon and said they planned to attend the Tryon Show next year.

The Mollie Morris Circle of the Methodist church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Larry Brooks. The program will be in charge of Miss Minnie Garrison.

Miss Ruth McFarland of Queens College spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. McFarland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Richards have returned to Oak Hall hotel.

Miss Ann Bliven of New York is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. E. Bliven.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swann, Jr., of Waynesville, spent the weekend with relatives in Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. McDonald and daughter, Mrs. Bryant Donaldson, will return to Detroit this afternoon.

—Coming—
REBECCA

—to—
Tryon Theatre
—on—
May 13, 14, 15

FOR THE LEADING LADY OF YOUR HEART —

MOTHER'S DAY
Sunday, May 12th

MOTHER
Leading Lady
HANDBAG

ONLY $1

Tell her she's the grandest mother in the world — with a glamorous Leading Lady Handbag, to play a stellar role in her Spring ensemble. The styles are brilliant copies of Parisian favorites — the colors are the season's newest and gayest. And, because it's Leading Lady quality, you can be sure she'll remember your gift a long, long time.

The Ballenger- Jackson Company