CURB REPORTER

The Junior Women's Club of Saluda are doing a good deed today by sponsoring a concert by the Vaughn's Quartet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Saluda high school, for the benefit of St. Luke's hospital . . . . Now while eggs are plentiful would be a good time for many farmers all over the County to do their bit by donating eggs to the hospital. The "widow's mite" is always appreciated and it inspires the fellow who can give more to do their part . . . . A number of Tryon golfers left this afternoon for Rutherfordton to help form a tournament association with Shelby, Rutherfordton, Forest City, Spartanburg, Lake Lure and Tryon . . . . The ole swimming hole is beginning to look attractive now with this good June weather of southern sunshine mixed with mountain breezes putting pep in life everywhere . . . . Never saw a tiny new born lamb until the other day. John Brown raises sheep on his farm near Columbus. This little lamb's mother was so frail that the lamb had to be fed from a bottle . . . . Tryon Post Office ranks 30 in North Carolina in the sale of Savings Bonds last year according to information just received from Washington by Postmaster Stearns. Over $13,000.00 worth of government bonds were purchased at the Tryon office. This would no doubt have been much

Saluda Scout Camp to Open In July

Plans are being made for the opening of the Palmetto Council, Boy Scouts of America, camp near Saluda, N. C., this summer.

Under present plans, according to Charles Lea, Scout executive the camp will open for the first time early in July, with several hundred Scouts attending.

The new site, ideally located in the heart of the mountains, about four miles from Saluda, has been cleared and the road leading to it rocked and put in first class condition.

Work at the present consists of finishing the spillway to the dam and other final details of the artificial lake, which will cover several acres.

Sites for tents and camping areas have been cleaned and outdoor furnaces are being completed. Scout will live in tents the first year until permanent sites for huts and cottages have been chosen.—Spartanburg Herald.
