POLK COUNTY MEN CAUGHT WITH WHISKEY

The Asheville Citizen today reports that Federal officers announced Friday the arrest of several persons on liquor charges:

"Alcohol tax unit investigators arrested Otis O. Feagan and Walter Foster, Columbus men, at Bent Creek after finding 60 gallons of non-tax-paid whiskey in their truck. A cow and a calf being transported in the truck were being used, officers said, to disguise the true nature of the trip, and the animals also were seized.

"The two men were brought before United States Commissioner Vonno L. Gudger here and were released under bonds of $300 each for their appearance for trial at the May term of United States district court here next week."

Adams and Durham Omitted In List of Delegates

In the list of delegates to the County Democratic Convention published in the Bulletin on Monday the following names were omitted through an error in proof reading: Frail Durham of Tryon Township and Bob Adams, a member of the Tryon Precinct Executive Committee.

The County Convention will meet at 2 p. m., in Columbus at the Court House. The Executive Committee, consisting of the six precinct chairmen will meet at 1 p. m.
