

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N C., MONDAY, MAY 13, 1940

CURB REPORTER

The Southern Railway office at Cincinnati has requested literature about Tryon and its hotels for summer guests. The Tryon Chamber of Commerce mailed out a bunch of this material this morning. It is hoped that the County and Tryon and Saluda Chambers of Commerce and any others interested can get together and put out an attractive folder with pictures that would show up to advantage the points of interest all over the County, so a prospective citizen can get a better idea of what the County has to offer. One prospect might want a good farm in Green Creek and look at the mountains from a distance; another may want to live tight in the mountains from Saluda to Tryon or Columbus to Mill Spring to Cooper's Gap, or down to Landrum and points in upper South Carolina. Just so we get the right kind of people in this section and make them happy should be the aim of us all. Vice-President J. T. Arledge of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce hopes to have such a folder sometime this year The Spartanburg Herald this morning has a picture of Lefty Flynn watching the golf tournament at Spartanburg during the weekend Miss Virginia Heath writes from Arlington, Fla.: "I am enclosing my check for two dollars for the Bulletin.

...Continued on Back Page....

Green Re-Elected Chairman County Democrats

Dr. W. S. Green was re-elected chairman of the Polk County Democratic Executive Committee on Saturday at the first meeting of the re-organization on Saturday at Columbus. Mrs. Susan Craig of Saluda, vice-chairman; D. S. Blois, of Tryon, secretary.

The County Democratic convention which met at 2 p. m., in the Court House elected R. M. Hall as convention chairman and D. S. Blois as secretary.

A resolution committee was appointed consisting of J. T. Arledge, chairman, G. C. Feagan, M. R. McCown, E. B. Cloud, Roy Baisden, A. A. Thompson, W. H. Ledbetter. The convention adopted resolutions endorsing Roosevelt for the third term, approving of the County, State and National administrations; also one demanding a reappointment of representatives and urged the Western North Carolina voters to vote for candidates from the west.

Dr. Green, the chairman, emphasized the responsibility of the democratic party in the world crisis and in the management of State and local affairs, because the Democrats are in the majority.

Delegates elected to the State convention which meets in Raleigh on May 17th are as follows: Cooper's Gap, Mrs. Eunice Elmore; Tryon, J. S. Massenburg, J. T. Arledge, M. R. McCown, W. Y. Wilkins, Julian Hester, W. C. Ward; Saluda, Miss R. E. Blair, Mrs. Susan Craig; White Oak, W. C. Hague, Henry Thompson; Columbus, F. M. Burgess, Robert S. McFarland, W. D. Hines; Green Creek, G. C. Feagan, Worth Walker, J. J. Page.