

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N C., THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1940

CURB REPORTER

Many people from all sides have been high in their praise of the Tryon-Saluda high school band which gives a free concert on Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Tryon school auditorium. These people seemed to be surprised that the band is so good . . . Today is the 94th birthday of Mrs. D. H. Williams who came to Tryon many years ago to operate what is now Oak Hall hotel . . . A number of Tryon Rotarians went to Asheville today to put on the Rotary . . . Nelson Jackson, Jr., chairman of the finance committee of the Polk County Boy Scout committee reports that progress is being made in raising the County's quota of funds with which to carry on Scouting in the Piedmont Council. This Council operates the camp at Lake Lanier. It is said by national leaders to be one of the best camps of its kind in the country. . . . Softball is in the air now. It is a game old and young can enjoy with pleasure and benefit. and these Thursday afternoons off during the summer are going to see many games . . . The Adams-Millis regular baseball team will play Brevard on Saturday, 18th, at Harmon Field . . .

Tryon High School softball team defeated the Adams-Millis softball team 30-7 on Wednesday afternoon at Harmon Field.

District Club Women Met In Columbus

The Home Demonstration Club women of District No. 2 held their annual meeting on Tuesday at Columbus from 10:30 a. m., to 4 p. m. The meeting was held in the Stearns auditorium, lunch in the gymnasium, stunts and games on the Courthouse lawn. W. P. Jackson conducted a recreational program of folk dancing. The gymnasium and auditorium were attractively decorated for the occasion with ivy, bamboo, etc. Among the speakers were A. C. Kinney, State College, Raleigh, who spoke on the importance of the cow to the family; Mrs. Esther G. Willis, district agent and Miss Anna C. Rowe, district agent, both of Raleigh. Music for the occasion was directed by Mrs. G. V. Tilley of Columbus with Mrs. T. E. Swain as the accompanist. The lunch was prepared by the Baptist and Methodist Missionary Societies of Mill Spring.

Communications

Detroit, Michigan.
Of great regret to her friends in Tryon will be the news of the death of Mrs. Nellie Carter who was in the Stanford Crapo household for many years. Mrs. Carter died at the home of her son, Richard Carter, 1727 Hollywood Street, Grosse Pointe, Mich. The funeral service will be at the Congregational church, in Grand Blanc, Mich., at 2 o'clock on Thursday.

Very sincerely yours,
Mary Crapo Hyde.
May 14th.