Attention Called to Markers In Primary

The 1939 General Assembly made a very drastic change in the use of markers in primaries.

The only voters who may be assisted in the marking of their ballots are those who cannot read and those who by reason of physical handicap, such as blindness, paralysis or other disabling defect, are unable to mark their ballot.

In an official opinion, the Attorney General ruled that only those illiterates registered under the Grandfather Clause of the Constitution were entitled to assist by reason of their inability to read.

When a voter is entitled to assistance in the marking of the ballot, he must obtain the assistance from a near relative, (husband and wife; parent and child; brother and sister; or grandparent and grandchild) but if no such near relative is present, he may then ask any other voter of the precinct who has not assisted any other voter, to give him the assistance. If, however, there is present no near relative, or other voter who has not marked another ballot, the voter may then, but only then, call upon the registrar or a judge of elections for assistance.

The registrar is required to keep a record of all voters who receive assistance and the names of the persons giving assistance.

It is not only unlawful for any person to give assistance, but also unlawful for any person to receive or permit assistance except under the terms of the Act.

The Act does not prevent mem-

Open Fishing Season To Begin June 10th

W. R. McLean, Special Agent for the Conservation and Development Department of North Carolina, stated today that the open season for bass, crapie, perch, bream will open on Monday, June 10th. The closed season on trout will begin September 1st.

Mr. McLean said "the department wishes to stress the fact that all who are planning to fish this season should first secure a license or a permit."

The agent stated that a fine would be administered to anyone caught without the proper license.

Tuberculosis is largely a "poor man's" disease.
