

Compassion for Suffering Millions

Polk County's Red Cross War Relief Fund now amounts to $1,117.47. This is more than $400 in excess of the quota; but since, the call for help was issued, the need has more than doubled.

James L. Fieser of the National Red Cross writes: "We have compassion for the boys whose bodies must bear the impact of steel in modern warfare. We would seek to carry out traditional mission of helping the victims of war. These are no longer limited to soldiers and sailors. The old, the young, babies in arms, millions of helpless, harmless, distraught and weary dispossessed are added now to the cross of human suffering as they become homeless wanderers. Children with bruised bodies and minds, many lost from their loved ones, others orphaned, totter as it were toward us in America, the last big uninvolved nation of free capable of showing concern thru our charity. To smash the quotas will be notice that we voluntarily wish to act as civilized beings in the face of compelling human misery."

Money for this fund may be left with Mrs. George Cathey, Blue Ridge Weavers, Miss Marjorie Capps, Missildine's Pharmacy, and J. B. Hester, Sr., treasurer of Polk County Chapter.

ATTENTION VOTERS

Realizing that the average voter has little opportunity to know anything about our State officers, whose duty keeps them in Raleigh, we wish to call the attention of the public to the record which DAN BONEY, State Commissioner of Insurance, has made during the last four years.

We believe that MR. BONEY has made the best Commissioner of Insurance the State has ever had. He has enforced the laws protecting the public without fear or favor.

MR. BONEY is standing for re-election in the coming Primary, tomorrow, and for the above reasons we urge our voters to support his candidacy. Our Secretary is instructed to publish the above.
