

COURT OF HONOR HERE MONDAY

The Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held on Monday night at the Parish House according to an announcement made today by Scoutmaster W. A. Schilleter.

Miss Kelly Honored

Friends of Miss Martha Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kelly, will be interested to learn that she is one of eight University of North Carolina co-eds at Chapel Hill, who have been named for membership in Alpha Kappa Gamma, highest honorary society for women on the campus. Eligibility is based upon character, leadership and scholarship. Miss Kelly is a Senior at the University. — Western Carolina Tribune.

Mrs. B. King Couper, who spent the winter in Charleston, S. C., has returned to Tryon for the summer and will be at her Rock House Art Gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey Cooksey had as guests yesterday and today Miss Sara Darnell, Miss Doris Darnell, Miss Joyce Cooksey and Miss Evelyn McGraw, all of Spartanburg. They attended the graduation of George Cooksey, Jr., from Tryon high school and were among the out of town guests at the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Cooksey on Friday evening at the Tryon Country Club.

Mrs. E. H. Kaminer of Aiken, S. C., is the weekend guest of Miss Molly Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward and daughter, Miss Alene Ward, will leave on Sunday for Atlanta to attend the graduation of Bill Ward, from the Georgia School of Technology.

Nelson Jackson, Jr., has returned from a business trip in New York.

URGES PREPAREDNESS

Major Bernard Sharp delivered an interesting address at the Tryon Rotary Club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale. He discussed the present European Situation and showed the need for America to be fully prepared with an adequate army, navy and air corp for any eventuality. He illustrated his talk with maps showing the closeness of South America to Europe and the possible footholds aggressor nations could get in the western hemisphere. Major W. A. Schilleter had charge of the program. President E. Perry Manville announced that the Rotary Club had already started its collection of tinfoil to be sold for charity. Owen's Pharmacy and Sunnysdale are already receiving the wrappers from chewing gum and cigarette packages.

COLORED SCHOOL CLOSING

The closing season was attended with its usual interest and success. Although the class was small, there was evidence of accomplishments. The Rev. Farley Fisher of Rutherfordton, delivered the annual sermon and last night Prof. B. J. Lee, principal of Pittsboro high school made the commencement address. His subject was: "Some Facts on the business of Life". Each was a master in his field. With befitting remarks, L. R. Wells, principal of Tryon school delivered the diplomas.

A Delicious Wine
BURGUNDY
TRY IT!
Dr. Fuldner's
Falerno Vineyard
Phone 194-M