

RION—SAYRE

Miss Geraldine Sayre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Sayre and Mr. Daniel Stevenson Rion, son of Mrs. James H. Rion and the late Mr. Rion, were married at 10 o'clock this morning at the Erskine Memorial Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Frank Kennedy of Bloomington, Ind., as matron of honor. The bride-groom's brother, Mr. James Rion of Kingsport, Tennessee, was best man.

The ushers were Messrs. Edward Sayre, Earle Rion, Earle Tisdale and Jim Keine.

Nuptial music on the organ was played by Mrs. E. E. Missildine.

The church was attractively decorated with a pink and white motif of polyantha roses, larkspur and baby breath. The altar background was decorated with large palm leaves.

The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

Following a wedding trip to an unannounced destination Mr. and Mrs. Rion will be at home in Athens, Georgia, on June 15th. The bride-groom is a graduate of Tryon high school and of North Carolina State college. He is a district representative of the National Oil Products Company of New Jersey. The bride was the valedictorian of her class in the Tryon high school and is a graduate of the Woman's College University of North Carolina.

CHARLES GURLEY

News has been received in Tryon of the death of Charles T. Gurley, 54, after a long illness, Burial at Charleston, West Virginia, after a long illness. Burial at Charleston on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Gurley was a brother of Mrs. Jim Moore of Tryon. He was a native of Polk County and lived for many years in Spartanburg. He had made his home in West Virginia for the past 18 years and was engaged in the shoe business. He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Rose Thomas of Spartanburg, and six children.

Mrs. Banning To Speak At Parish House

Mrs. Margaret Culkin Banning, noted author of many books and articles on social and economic problems, will be the chief speaker tonight at 8 o'clock at the Parish House. The meeting is open to the public and is sponsored by citizens interested in civilian preparedness. Admission is free.

Mrs. William McKenny, nee Virginia Pearson, and Miss Julia Pearson of Washington, D. C., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Pearson at Melrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. McDowell of Charlotte are occupying the F. J. McDonald house on Markham road.

Eighteen Tryon Golfers went to Morganton on Thursday and played in the first inter-city golf tournament promoted by the Piedmont Golf Association of which E. C. Rowe of Tryon is president. The local golfers were high in their praise of the beautiful Mimosa golf course. The Tryon team lost the first tournament.

Enjoy
Golf and Tennis
RECREATION
at
TRYON
COUNTRY
CLUB