Kiwanians Enjoy Music Program By Official

Kiwanis Lieut.-Governor Horace Easom of Shelby, head of Division One of the Carolinas Kiwanis district gave an interesting musical program at the Tryon club on Tuesday at Hotel Tryon and followed it with an inspiring talk on the work of local Kiwanis Clubs, and what it means to be a Kiwanian; to keep the club a medium of community service, a reservoir of enthusiasm for building fellowship and lasting friendships. Governor Easom was assisted in the musical program by Mrs. A. C. Dellinger of Shelby, as pianist. Mrs. Easom was also a guest of the Club and Kiwanian J. E. Shipman of Hendersonville was present to make up his attendance.

No Solicitors For Red Cross

Two reports have come to me of a white person or persons collecting money from colored people for the Red Cross War Relief Fund. No one, white or colored, is authorized to call on any one for money for the Red Cross at this time; and no money thus solicited has been turned in. Any one who is solicited should get the name of the person collecting money in the name of the Red Cross and report to me at once. Anyone thus soliciting funds outside of designated places or receiving contributions will be liable to prosecution for getting money under false pretenses. Gifts may be left with Miss Marjory Capps at
