At Kiwanis Tuesday

Ralph S. Jackson had charge of the Tryon Kiwanis Club program on Tuesday and gave some interesting accounts of the life of Tryon 32 years ago all of which indicated that the community had made tremendous progress and that conditions are better in every way. The Club endorsed the plans of the Chamber of Commerce to have a Fourth of July Celebration without fireworks at Harmon Field. C. J. Lynch chairman of the Playground commission reported that the Adams-Millis baseball team would have a double-header event on that day. There will be no charge for this but a collection will be taken up from among the fans in order to defray the expenses. Those desiring to play softball will have another corner of the field. The Kiwanis softball leaders voted to challenge the Rotary Club to a contest on July 4th. The club also accepted the invitation of the Greer, S. C., Club to an inter-city meeting on Thursday night of this week. Twelve members will make the trip.

To Rehabilitate Prisoners

Rev. D. M. McGeachy, Rev. Edward M. Graham and J. A. Wilson attended the conference on the rehabilitation of prisoners at a meeting held Tuesday at the prison at Spindale. Approximately 1,600 prisoners are released in North Carolina each year and sent back to their homes by parole or at the expiration of their sentences. Of this number over half of them

Fourth of July to Be Celebrated Here

Plans for a big Fourth of July celebration at Harmon Field was discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday. C. J. Lynch, director of playgrounds, is chairman of the committee and the event will be just as large as the interest of the public demands. A double-header baseball game with Adams-Millis and opponents is already scheduled. Softball games are planned. An outstanding speaker has been suggested, folk contests, with free lemonade and dancing, picnics, music, games and ice water are being considered. Anyone desiring to donate to this fund or offer suggestions for entertainment may communicate with Mr. Lynch. Admission to Harmon Field will be free that day and no charge for anything. A collection will be taken for the Adams-Millis games on account of the visiting opponents.

Landrum Stores Will Close On Thursdays

The leading merchants of Landrum will close on Thursday afternoons at 1 p. m., during the months of June, July and August, in order to give the clerks an extra period during the hot months for recreation. A spokesman for the merchants of Landrum stated that the barber shops and dry cleaners were also cooperating in this movement.
