The staff of the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp have all arrived at Lake Lanier and are busy putting the camp in the best possible condition for the opening of the 1940 season which, according to the Camp Director, is expected to be the record for the past 16 years.

The staff this summer includes R. M. Schiele, Camp Director; A. C. Warlick, Jr., Assistant Camp Director; Mrs. R. M. Schiele, dietitian; Tracy Lamar, Jr., waterfront director; Wert Rhyne, Jr., and Bruce Warlick, assistant waterfront directors; Dr. W. H. Bandy, camp physician; James Allran, naturalist; B. C. Morrow, range officer; Charles O'Kelly, athletic officer; Winston Timberlake, Scoutmaster of the camp service troop; Charlton Howard, assistant Scoutmaster; Max Thorpe, Jack Edwards, Thomas Allison, Ben Warren and Fred Edwards, craft instructors; Walter Barnes, Jr., camp secretary; David Yoder, officer director.

The camp will open with the annual Leaders' Conference on Saturday, June 15th, with supper at 7 p. m., which will run through noon dinner on Sunday. Judge Capps of Gastonia, president of the Council, will conduct devotional services on Sunday morning.

The first Scout Troops will arrive Monday morning and they will include Troop 1 of Tryon, Troop 1 of Valdese, Troop 1 of Avondale, Troop 5 of Shelby, Troop 1 of Boiling Springs, Troop 3 of Morganton, Troop 1 of Belmont and the Camp Service Troop.

Gray—Beck

The wedding of Miss Katharine Lister Beck and Mr. William Wetmore Gray was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Mr. Charles L. McGavern. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Herbert Beck.

The church was attractively decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crandall in ivy, blue delphinium, white gladioli and Easter lilies.

Mrs. John Ferguson of Spartanburg, a friend of the bride and groom, was the organist. The Swedish Wedding March by Soderman and the Norwegian Wedding March by Grieg were played.

The bride wore a dephenium blue coat suit with a panel of white on the coat embroidered in blue. Her corsage was of white orchids and blue delphinium.

She was attended by her sisters. Miss Margaret Beck as maid of honor wore a costume of flowered silk jersey print. Miss Gertrude Beck as bridesmaid was also in a flowered silk jersey print. Both wore picture hats and carried bouquets of white sweet peas and delphinium.

Mr. John Gray of Charlotte, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The ushers were Broadus Balenger, John S. Blackwell, Harold Crandall and Waverly Hester. The ushers, best man and bridegroom wore white linen suits and blue ties, and had boutennieres of gardenias and blue delphinium.

The bride's mother wore a coat suit of dusty rose crepe appliqued
