To Celebrate Fourth At Harmon Field

Polk County residents and neighboring citizens are cordially invited to come to Harmon Field on July 4th for an all day outing. There will be baseball games, softball games, music, square dancing, other games and contests. Plenty of free lemonade and ice water. Everybody invited to bring basket lunch for noon and supper. Bring your friends and have a good time. Each family or group can have their own table and eat together.

Anyone desiring to play any kind of game or contest is invited to come. All musicians are urged to bring their instruments.

Suggestions for entertainment may be sent to C. J. Lynch or mailed to The Polk County News. A freewill offering will be taken for the baseball game, but everyone will be admitted to the ground free.
