

Mountain Dew-ings At Saluda

By Adulas, June 19

Adulas' Operative No. 11 being asked by Mary Julia Forrest what one "Has to do to be written up in Mountain Dew-ings" and being told by said A. O. that there was a recent matter of a small but exclusive "Consolation" party out at "Jacks" that would have made excellent copy.

Bull-terrier "Bob" definitely in the Dog-house with local authorities and bystanders after he had jumped Guerry DesPortes' small and leashed cocker Spaniel "Taffv" on Main Street; and Guerry, swell little sportswoman that she is, saying that she didn't think "Bob" was entirely to blame as she felt that some youngsters had "Siced Bob onto Taffy." "Taffy" by the way, was not seriously hurt, except for a punctured ear lobe and the scar of his canine life.

Representative of the Asheville Citizen coming to Saluda to get photographs and a story on the Spartanburg Baby Hospital.

Mrs. J. S. Burnett of Spartanburg and family now in summer residence here.

Post office employee stating that there are approximately 50 more box lessees now than there were at this time last year, Manager Eddie Leland of the telephone company adding that he has had to buy new phones and equipment to meet the increased demand for phone service, and a representative of one of the telegraph companies agreeing with the post office and phone people that all visitors and new arrivals should certainly record their local addresses immediately upon their arrival—whether they EXPECT any messages or not.

Mail truck operator "Little Daddy" Hipp inspecting a new mail and hand-luggage cart at the Southern depot and the shiney, green cart being stenciled as made in the "Charlotte Roadway Shops"

Walter Newman and Bill Blackwell of Tryon in town Wednesday evening and searching diligently for "Weiners" or was it "Win-nies"?

Attractive lassie dashing out of Glenwood Cafe at nine-thirty to get powdered for a ten o'clock "Lait dait" and humming a refrain that sounded mighty like "Oh, Johnny, Oh Johnny—"

Ralph Hipp, 36th Field Artillery, U. S. Army at home on furlough from Fort Bragg and having 30 months service of his second enlistment ahead of him upon his return. Ralph was stationed in the Panama Canal Zone during his first enlistment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Bly arriving by motor from Conneaut, Ohio, to take Connie Kimball back with them for an annual visit and Connie asking that her friends and customers be advised that her brother, Tommy, will distribute The Tryon Daily Bulletin from the Drug Store until her return.

Cecil Williams of Memphis staying with her grandmother, Mrs. C. G. Robinson until the arrival of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Williams, and saying that her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Robinson would arrive at their summer home, Stackhouse, today or tomorrow.

Admiral "Bunny" Vermont, Commodore "Fats" Gibbes and crew "Dolph" Vermont entertaining a group of Saluda's Prettiest aboard the Houseboat Water-Lilly that's moored just off the Vermont estate on Lake Summit, and Laura Woods (Gosh, Laura, you're getting absolutely newsogeuic!) remarking that the "Crek" ostensibly didn't know much about house-keeping as she was asked to "Man" a broom and "Lay on" immediately she stepped aboard.

"Lis" Cooper being delivered a glass Muddler (Swizzlestick to vuse high-ballers) that was sent her with the compliments of L. G. Appley, proprietor of that welcomed oasis, The Dugout, in Highlands, N. C., and "Liz" saying it was a pair of Bermuda sun-glasses she was hoping for. "30"

Sweetly scented candles and floating candle flowers just arrived at the Mountain Industries.—Ad.
