

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1940

Mrs. Tom Cannon

Mrs. Dozia Thompson Cannon, 45, widow of the late Tom Cannon, prominent Lynn merchant, died early this morning at St. Luke's hospital where she was carried on Sunday after a stroke suffered at her home on last Wednesday. Funeral plans were not complete at press time but services will probably be held on Wednesday afternoon at the Columbus Baptist church. The deceased is survived by the following children: Walter, Albert, Sara and Edna; also three brothers, former Sheriff G. L. Thompson, Mack and Columbus Thompson, all of Saluda, and one sister, Mrs. David Hipp, of Charlotte.

Tryon Golfers Hosts To Lake Lure Thursday

The Tryon Country Club golf team will be hosts to Lake Lure Country Club on Thursday afternoon for a tournament with the Lake Lure team of the Piedmont Golf League. All Tryon golfers are expected to be present to greet the Lake Lure team.

To Pave Road Soon

The Asheville Paving Company crew has arrived in Tryon and work of paving the new road to the State line is expected to begin early next week.

Softball Today

The Bushwhackers will play Soumerai today at 6:30 at Harmon Field. Public invited. No charges.

Association For War Relief

There is daily evidence that the people of this district are lending their efforts towards making the canning project for the benefit of the Allied War Sufferers a success. Volunteer workers are enrolling with Mrs. Harkness Smith and pledging their services for whatever work they may be called upon to do when the enterprise gets under way.

In response to letters sent out by Dudley Smith, treasurer, several donations have already been received and many others have been pledged. The American Can Company has indicated its desire to cooperate by contributing 1,000 cans free on the order for 5,000 cans placed with it by the committee.

For the benefit of those who may have missed the June 20 issue of The Bulletin and the June 21 issue of The Polk County News, the committee again urges all farmers, orchard and garden owners to leave at the Ice Plant, on the Asheville road, Tryon, on Saturday, July 6th, or any date thereafter, whatever surplus they may have of the following: String beans, tomatoes, apples, peaches, pears and berries.

Excerpt of a letter sent to Mrs. H. B. Vanderhoef, Jr., by her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. Bailey Vanderhoef, of Greenwich, Conn.: "I was delighted with the world's smallest daily newspaper and deeply impressed by the account of the food canning for war refugees that your community has

---Continued on Back Page---