Communications

Dear Mr. Vining:

We would like to say publicly a word of approval for a radio news program that we discovered a few weeks ago, namely the talk of James Dawson, heard over the Greenville station at 9 a. m., and 6:45 p. m.

Perhaps you can tell us something about him. He is to our minds the best news analyst on the air. Every one to whom we have recommended him agrees with us. His talk is always well thought-out, well phrased, showing an understanding that is unusual, and yet none of the pretentious wisdom that some of our commentators seem to have. No foolish speculation, no sputtering or playing to the gallery. We should like to know more of him.

E. G. Curtis.
