MOUNTAIN DEW-INGS

exceptionally attractive is a grand sport about singing the latest hits in her throaty, melodious "Torch Singer" style, and thereby has "Stole the Show" at several recent parties.

And speaking of "Parties" we'd like to tell you more about a swell one that was "Celebrated" Saturday evening but until "John T." and "Stubby" can settle the argument as to which of them was the official host, it's "Off the record."

Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart of Joplin, Mo., are now in summer residence at their recently acquired and remodeled Belk property; and Mr. Eckhart stating that he had disposed of his summer cottage in the Ozarks.

Mrs. H. C. Twiggs and son, Henry, will arrive Tuesday from Habana, Cuba; they will be accompanied by Mrs. M. A. Lawson and Captain Maurice Lawson; Mr. Twiggs, who has been a summer resident here for the past ten years was probably kept in Cuba on account of the war situation; he is an official of one of the two British controlled railways in Cuba.

The Ogdens (also of Cuba, are expected within a few days.

Dining at The Oaks, Sunday were: Mrs. Hattie Kirkpatrick, and La Von Sarafain of Asheville, Mrs. Frances Keith King and daughters, Frances and Margaret, Mrs. Laura B. Jones and daughters, Suzanne and Laura of Columbia, Mrs. Frank W. Crowther and daughter, Betty of Mercon and niece Anne Buxton of Greenville and Mrs. John Randolph Bertolett of Charleston.

Gertrude Crowther and her hostess, Alice Fulton, parking at the Curb and Gertrude "Putting down two and carrying one" and both of them quizzing "John T." about his (?) "Weiner Roast" last Saturday night; and "John T." insisting that it was "Stubby's" party. "30"
