Health Program Outlined At Rotary Club

Dr. Austin Woody had charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale. Miss Irene Clarke, county nurse, was the guest speaker. She gave an interesting outline of the progress of public health work in Polk County. This work is tied up with the Rutherford-Polk unit and gives the county the services of a county doctor and three county nurses. The health program includes maternity welfare, pre-natal examinations, tuberculosis tests, laboratory tests, clinics for venereal diseases, crippled children, distribution of health education material and general instruction on improving public and personal health, the examination of handlers of food and inspection of eating places. The services of the health program are many and the work of the county organization stands out in the State program. The roads in the county have been improved to speed up the work but the lack of telephones in most of the county is a terrible handicap in emergencies when a doctor is needed.

During the business session former president Julian Hester inducted into office the new officers and directors as follows: B. G. Henry, president; James R. Trowbridge, vice-president; W. E. Kilpin, secretary-treasurer; James B. Hester, B. L. Ballenger and E. Perry Manville directors.

In his acceptance speech President Henry acknowledged the responsibilities of the Tryon Rotary Club and of its opportunities for community service and for a world wide fellowship in an international
