CURB REPORTER

Editor Lee Weathers of the Shelby Star was a caller at the Bulletin office on Saturday while enroute from the State Press meeting at Hendersonville. Sorry we missed him but the editor was attending a meeting of the W. N. C. Communities Associated at Blowing Rock. Tryon was represented by K. A. Bowen, C. H. Helms, Carroll P. Rogers and C. J. Lynch. A number of members stated that they were coming to Tryon on July 4th . . . Mrs. John L. Washburn reports that they have been having frost at Duluth, Minn. Well, some people in the mountain section here had to build fires during the weekend in order to keep warm. Tryon area has the best all year round climate in the world . . . Congressman Zebulon Weaver writes L. G. Harkness Smith of Tryon in reference to the TOWN MEETING held recently, "I feel that we have, in a large measure carried out the wishes expressed by those in Tryon who are interested in our world situation. We have tried, I think, to push our national defense program as rapidly as possible, and I believe that when it is all carried out we will have a defense system which will discourage invasion by any foreign country, not only of the United States, but of the Western Hemisphere. Since France has been overthrown, and the burden is largely upon the shoulders of England, I feel it more important than ever for us to rush every possible aid, in the way of supplies, munitions, planes, etc., to them in the fight for the cause of democracy in the world."
