SCOUT CAMP ENJOYING RECORD SEASON

Officials of the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp announce that the camp is enjoying its record attendance in the history of the camp and in spite of constant enlargement it is not possible to accommodate all who wish to attend. Last week and this week the camp has had an overflow group with more than 200 enrolled.

Troops in camp this week include Troops 4, 7, 9 and 25 Gastonia; Troop 1 Smyre; Troop 1 Ranlo; Troop 1 Stony Point; Troop 3 Shelby; Troop 1 Ruthrford College and Troops 2, 3 and 4 of Lincolnton. Among the various Troop leaders at the camp are Rev. Huss of Stony Point, Rev. Hunnicutt of Gastonia and Ennis Atkins of the advertising staff of the Gastonia Daily Gazette.

Scout Marion Edwards of Troop 1 of Tryon is attending the camp this week as a member of the Camp Service Troop.

JOHN E. DANIELS

News has been received here of the death of John Evans Daniels at 8:30 this morning in an Atlanta, Ga., hospital. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Petty Funeral Home in Landrum. Mr. Daniels was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels of Landrum and was a brother of Noah, Walter and Joe Daniels of Landrum.

Of the 100,000,000 tulip bulbs shipped into the United States each year, the Netherlands was responsible for 98,500,000, so a new industry may be created in this country thru necessity.

Margaret Culkin Banning To Begin Weekly NBC Series

Margaret Culkin Banning, celebrated novelist, short story writer, lecturer and civic leader, who has a winter home in Tryon, has initiated a series of radio broadcasts, "Margaret Banning Speaks." The first of these talks was carried yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock over Radio Station WISE over the NBC. Mrs. Banning's topic next Thursday, July 4, will be "Conscription of Youth". On July 11 she will speak on "Women in the Home Face the World Situation."

Speaking as a woman who has lived in a town in whose affairs she has always taken an active part, Mrs. Banning's program will take the form of practical essays.

"I still live and vote in Duluth", she says. "There I keep my responsibilities. I work on local committees and on the library board and have memberships in altogether too many things. Duluth is headquarters and where I feel native."

A distinguished member of 38 organizations, Margaret Culkin Banning's enthusiasm has taken her into many fields of civic activity and writing, in addition to her novels and short stories. Two magazine articles have recently received wide acclaim.

Her broadcasts will cover the almost unlimited range of her interests and these are best explained by her statement: "I like being a citizen, and a writer, and a mother, in that order. I like ordering a good dinner and arranging flowers and buying new
