

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1940

New Dentist Here

Dr. Chas. W. McCall, son of Dr. C. S. McCall of Forest City is chosen Tryon as the place to start his dental career and for the next few weeks will be in the office of Dr. J. E. Derby. After that he will open an office of his own in the same building near Dr. Derby's. Dr. McCall took his pre-dental course at Wofford college and was graduated this spring from the Atlanta Dental college. He has passed the state examinations of Georgia, South Carolina, and North Carolina.

Author of Blackie Bear Stories At Oak Hall

D. Sam Cox of Raleigh and Bear Creek, N. C., author of the famous Blackie Bear stories for children, is a guest this week at Oak Hall hotel. This is Mr. Cox's first visit to Tryon although he is known many Tryonites for over years. He says that he has fallen in love with the place and can easily understand why so many noted people come here to rest and work and eventually retire. He has found it ideal for his work which has increased tremendously since the growing popularity of Blackie Bear stories has multiplied his correspondence as well as his burden of producing stories.

About 75,000 Blackie Bear books have been sold to school children in North Carolina. Many of the stories have appeared in newspapers and are heard over radio stations WFBR, Baltimore and WBT, Charlotte from time to time. Noted people from all over the world have written testimonies to

---Please Turn To Back Page---

Piedmont Scout Board To Meet At Camp

Tryon, N. C., July 16.—The Executive Board of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, representing the counties of Alexander, Burke, Caldwell, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, McDowell, Polk and Rutherford will meet at the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp at Lake Lanier on Sunday morning, July 21. Judge Bismarck Capps of Gastonia, President of the Piedmont Council, will conduct a devotional service at 11 o'clock and a short business meeting and an inspection of the Camp will be made. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock.

According to R. M. Schiele, the Executive of the Council, the Camp is enjoying its record season and it is expected that the enrollment will total at least 1,600 Scouts and Leaders during the summer. A new patrol cabin recently contributed by the Statesville District makes it possible to accommodate 200 at the camp each week. The new campfire theatre built as a memorial to the late J. Frederick Kistler of Morganton by the Morganton Kiwanis Club has been completed and gives the Camp one of the most unique campfire and outdoor settings of the camps of the country.

Party Is Warned by Farley Not to Be too Confident

Chicago, July 15. — James A. Farley told the Democratic convention tonight that "the whole issue"

---Continued On Back Page---