

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1940

CURB REPORTER

The Town Budget was published in Wednesday's Daily Bulletin. A more detailed statement is available at the Town Office. The Town officials have made wonderful progress and the community enjoys conveniences equal to cities much larger and yet have all the advantages of a quiet, simple village. Someday we hope the budget will permit either time or money for a man to pick up the trash in the no man's areas on the streets. The added time and cost would be so little, and it would help a lot to make the taxpayers feel they were getting their money's worth. A $10,000 sewer project needed to protect the health of the community is buried in the ground and can not be seen, and that's true of many other necessary things that are done to keep things running smoothly, but broken bottles and trash thrown between the sidewalks and roads can be seen; and the uninformed taxpayers wonder what they do with all the money. Some broken milk bottles have been lying in a dangerous place on Grady Ave. ever since last spring, and near where barefoot children play. The dairy that owned the bottles probably wouldn't want them out in that condition, but doesn't think about it. The owner of the house doesn't live there now. So whose business is it to remove the bottles? Some

Continued On Back Page

Soumerco and Landrum Split Softball Games

In the first game of a double-header softball event at Harmon Field Thursday afternoon Soumerco had a slight edge and took the game 3 to 1. But the tables turned in the second game and Landrum took complete control of the game and came out with a 7 to 2 win. A record crowd attended the contests. The Kilowatters and Bushwhackers will play this afternoon at 6 o'clock. Come out and see this game. Admission free.

GOLF NEWS

The Inter-Club match between Forest City Golf Club and Tryon Country Club will be played on Sunday afternoon starting at 2 o'clock.

A Flag Tournament will be held this weekend at the Tryon Country Club, 18 holes, medal play, handicap. Entry fee 25c. Members who play in the Inter-Club match on Sunday may use their individual scores in the Flag Tournament.

BASEBALL SATURDAY

A double-header baseball game will be played on Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field between Adams-Millis and Enka. Enka is two games ahead of the locals for first place and a close contest is anticipated. First game starts at 2:30. Ward and Arledge will probably form the battery for the first game; and Wilson and Arledge for the second. Kimberlin and Culler will be held in reserve for both games.