Mountain Dew-ings At Saluda

By Adulas, July 31

Marjorie Noble and friend road-hacking along the concrete highway.

Gene Brandon telling recent guests of his interesting presidency of an organization of amateur movie hobbyists in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Quincy ("Kate") Kennedy arriving on The Mountain from Williston, S. C.

Louis Kirby seeking in vain for an extra copy of Monday's Bulletin and ordering five copies of Tuesday's issue; and a certain summering matron saying that she "Was careful not to take Monday's Bulletin down to the house."

Helen Robinson carefully nursing a huge bunch of beautiful illies in her lap all the way from Tryon to "Stackhose."

Director Walters and Riding Instructor Peggy Simms expressing much satisfaction over the showing made by Bear Walla entries in the recent Hendersonville Horse Show.

Student of Flora MacDonald College saying that she had heard that her last year's instructor in "Government" had been investigated for alleged espionage and 5th Column activities.

SIDE-WALK SIDELIGHTS

James E. Jordan being twitted by Julian Timberlake over losing his way about the house and disturbing the latter and other occupants at a wee-emma hour recently . . . Tommy Kimball saying that some people are too extravagant—that he only deserved a two cent tip for the particular curb service rendered . . . Gertrude using all of three matches to light a cigarette . . . Roy Thompson's Boston Terrier delightedly having his back scratched by Mr. Snow of Florida . . . Eddie Leland coming out of the drug store with his hands full of napkinned ice-cream cones . . . Bill Heriot repeating the latest radio war bulletins for bench warmers.

Rpeort that Baty Hall "Is doing just fine and had his stitches removed today."

Audrey reporting a car license from Honolulu, T. H. and being ruled out-of-order on account of the car not being seen within the City limits.

Please, let's ward-off "Stormy Weather" by refraining from discussing the recent cloudy weather; the forecast for Thursday being: "Clearing with rising temperature towards nightfall; gentle but steady Western breezes." . . . "30"
