

CURB REPORTER

The Lefty Flynns write from Cape Cod, Mass., that they are longing for Tryon, to see their friends and get a glimpse of Hogback Mountain. Everyone seems to be knitting for the war refugees. They report having a good time at the beach and all's well . . . Italians and Germans getting ready for a mass attack on England according to reports . . . Paving of the new highway stretch from the South Carolina line has already passed Sunnysdale entrance on the second strip, and should be finished this week if weather permits . . . A copy of the Minneapolis Tribune just received, probably through courtesy of George Cathey who is up there on a visit.

The W. E. Kilpins have moved over into Canada for a visit with Mrs. Jarvis . . . Mrs. J. H. Perkins has moved up to her Massachusetts home from Greenwich . . . Henry Shankle, Jr., is back at Portland, Oregon, after studying at the University at Eugene. He will operate his own printing plant this winter . . . Al Smith has bolted the Democratic party again and says he'll work for Willkie . . . The British plan to blockade Spain and Portugal on goods going to British enemies . . . Mr. and Mrs. David Windsor are scheduled to leave Portugal on Thursday for New York. Mr. Windsor will be the governor of the Bahamas, off the Florida coast . . . The South American countries and the U. S. have signed an agreement to help keep the Americas safe for democracy, etc. . . .

Edgar Ballew has returned home after spending July in Ohio. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grix of Akron, who are spending their vacation with relatives in Tryon.
