CURB REPORTER

Editor C. M. Douglas of the Brevard newspaper informs us that Miss Adelaide Van Wey, dramatic contralto, will sing tonight at 8 o'clock at the Brevard high school auditorium for the benefit of the American Red Cross. Editor Douglas says that he has paid $2.10 to hear her sing in New York, but that it will cost only 50c to hear her in Brevard tonight. It is hard to believe Douglas paying $2 to hear anybody sing. He says Miss Van Wey has appeared as soloist with the Naumberg orchestra under the baton of Toscanini and others; has sung over WEAJ, WJZ and WOR radio stations and did leading contralto roles in Gilbert & Sullivan's "Sulliberts." Folk in this section are invited to go to Brevard tonight and hear her.

. . . Lindberg urges appeasement, but General Pershing probably remembering Munich, says send the British 50 warships now and help prevent the war reaching America. German troops reported massing near English channel. England taking the offensive by making air attacks on Germany. . . . Joan Blondell wrote Walter Winchell's column in big dailies today. . . .
