

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 6, 1940

Dr. Allen Jervey, Jr., Named Rutherford-Polk District Health Officer

Rutherfordton, Aug. 5. — On Monday, Aug. 5th, Dr. Allen J. Jervey, Jr., of Tryon became executive head of the Rutherford-Polk District Health Department as Acting Health Officer for the two counties. Dr. H. C. Whims, former health officer, has been with the Lincoln-Catawba Health District since July 15th.

Dr. Jervey has been assisting his father, Dr. Allen J. Jervey of Tryon, in his medical and surgical practice. He has also assisted Dr. John Z. Preston in the Maternity and Infancy clinics and the venereal disease clinics in Polk County. Dr. Jervey will be in the Rutherford County office in the courthouse on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and on Saturday mornings until twelve o'clock noon, and in the health department office in Columbus on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The greater part of the administrative duties of the health officer are discharged in the main office in Rutherfordton.

On July 8th Miss Mary Louise Hewitt was added to the department as supervising nurse to direct and supervise the work of the public health nurses in the district department.

At present the personnel of the health department is as follows: Dr. Allen J. Jervey, Jr., health officer; Miss Mary Louise Hewitt, supervisor; Sanitarian for Rutherford County, B. A. Buff, and for Polk County, R. Y. Rhyne; public health nurses for Rutherford County, Misses Eugenia Twitty

Continued from Page One

Town's Indebtedness Was Decreased Last Year

On July 1, 1939, the total indebtedness of the Town of Tryon was $216,690, and during the year it was increased $10,000 more, but by economical management and increased revenue the indebtedness was reduced $19,840, making a total net reduction in debt of $9,480.

C. S. Ross

C. S. Ross, 68, former Tryon Chief of Police and Trade street merchant, passed away Monday night at his home after several years of illness. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Tryon Methodist church with the Rev. Edward Graham, officiating. The deceased is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Lindsey; one son, W. K. Ross, both of Tryon; two step-sons, Archie Davidson of Tryon and Claude Davidson of Hendersonville; also one brother, D. L. Ross, of Spartanburg.

MARRIED

Of the 51 marriages recorded last week in the Spartanburg County Court three were from Polk County as follows:

Izel Green, 20, of Asheville, N. C., and Ruth Simmons, 18, of Tryon.

Jake Carry, 24, and Naomi Derby, 18, both of Tryon.

James Garrett, 21, and Reeder Constance, 18, of Mill Spring.

'Watters 15; 'Whackers 14

The Kilowatters beat the Bushwhackers 15 to 14 Monday. Soumerco plays Landrum at 6:15 today at Harmon Field.