Mountain Dew-ings At Saluda

By Adulas, August 6

Among the younger smart social set, Sara Graydon with her house-party guests were participating in fun and frolic at the Hendersonville street-dance.

Many cards are being received by friends from Janie and John T. Coates saying they are really having an elegant time at the New York World's Fair and also wishing some of their Mountain Topper friends could join them.

A friend receiving a very inviting card from Charleston read like this. "Having wonderful time, (don't) wish you were here. But this is entirely 'off the record.'" Signed, Zil and Eilrahc . . . let's turn the tables, eh, Toodles!

. . . . Here's the break you've been waiting for girls! The lone ranger from Texas has just arrived and his name is none other than J. N. Nabers . . . and he'll be here several days too. We're mighty glad to have you back "Jake."

Among new visitors on The Mountain are: Mrs. Leah S. Robins, Mrs. Mildred Stewart and Mr. Lee Smithe from West Palm Beach, Fla., house-guesting with "Faye" and Wade Boling . . . Mr. and Mrs. Leighton D. Capps, Jr., and "Auntie," Mrs. Emily Parr

SIDEWALK SIDELIGHTS

. . . . Dolf Vermont, "Flats" Gibbs and Roy Mac Spratt "tooting" around like Gabriel on main street . . . Clever young writer, Mary Jane Pidgeon with Cecil Williams indulging in tennis 'most every morning . . . Mary Johnson coco-colaing with Paul Lantrip, Jr. . . . "Blame it on Love" says Gene Brandon, presenting it for his many friends . . . Mary Julia hopping around with a bad toe. . . . Kay and Muriel wearing sunglasses to do their early morning shopping. This is all today folks.

Delicious Orangeade and Chocolate Milk are favorites with guests and help make entertaining easier. Your KALMIA DAIRY milk man will bring it to your door ready to serve. Phone 149.—Adv. tr.
