150 Greenville Citizens Visited Tryon Wednesday

A goodwill delegation of 150 citizens of Greenville, S. C. making a one day round trip Goodwill tour to Greer, Landrum, Tryon, Saluda, Hendersonville and back to Greenville, visited Tryon on Wednesday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. A Tryon delegation headed by Mayor E. E. Missildine, President K. A. Bowen of the Chamber of Commerce and Playground Commissioner C. J. Lynch, met the tour at Sunnysdale Log Cabin where the long train of cars was escorted by Patrolman Miller and Chief Hague Kiser who met the party at the South Carolina line.

The visiting guests were served The Home Ice Plant's ice cold watermelons. There were a large number of ladies in the party and two of them, Mrs. Mahon and Mrs. McCullough made responses to the greetings from the Tryon committee.

The Greenville delegation was headed by Mayor and Mrs. C. Fred McCullough, Maj. G. Heyward Mahon, Jr., president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Mahon, L. M. Glenn, Hewlett Sullivan and others. The Greenville Municipal band of about 28 pieces, directed by L. T. Batson played at Sunnysdale before the watermelon was served.

The Greenville News of today had a long story and several pictures about the tour. One picture showed Mayor Missildine eating watermelon surrounded by Town Commissioners R. B. White, R. O. Andrews, Town Manager C. H. Helms and some Greenville officials.

Softball News

John W. Cowan, Tryon merchant is sponsoring a Soumerco softball team in a double-header contest this afternoon at Harmon Field. The first game will be played with the Bushwhackers and the second with Landrum Browns. The "Browns" is a second Landrum softball team formed to take the place of Adams-Millis in the Softball league. This game will be played around 6 o'clock immediately after the first game between Soumerco and Bushwhackers.

CURB REPORTER

With the biggest rain in history for Tryon the community just feels clean and fresh. There was no flood damage reported except to places on the streets and road where culverts just couldn't take it. . . . Some people have corns on their toes, but Mrs. Dora Foster had toes on her corn the other day when she bought a freak roasting ear from a peddler. When it was cooked the ear looked just like a hand or foot with five fingers or toes. It was just one of those tricks nature plays once in a while. . . . The British and Germans are still fighting in the air. Anthony Eden declares that England will carry the war to Germany. The Germans say they are outfighting the English. . . . Ashe-
