Tryon Dist. Schools Open Monday, Sept. 2

Three New Teachers.

The Tryon District Schools will open for the 1940-41 session on Monday, September 2nd, at 9 o'clock. On this day all pupils entering school are asked to report to their respective class rooms. They will march from there to the auditorium for a short opening exercise. All patrons are invited to attend these exercises. After the program the pupils will return to their class rooms to receive a schedule of work, book list, lesson assignments and other necessary instructions.

Pupils entering these schools for the first time, except First grade pupils, are asked to please register at the Superintendent's office for classification on Friday, Aug. 30, between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock. All pupils should be classified and assigned to grades before school opens.

The faculty will have three new teachers. Miss Sue Burr Johnson of Skyland, N. C., as teacher of the First grade. Miss Johnson has taught in some of the best North Carolina schools for ten years. Miss Mary E. Gamble of Wallace, N. C., as teacher of the Sixth grade. Miss Gamble has eight years experience as teacher in two of the most progressive schools in North Carolina. Miss Alice Lee Williams of Newton Grove, N. C. Miss Williams has taught for ten years in some of the leading schools of North Carolina.

A complete shop of manual training equipment has been installed ready for use. This will be a new
