

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUG, 19, 1940

CURB REPORTER

This is Court Week in Columbus and many thoughts are centered on the law. An added feature of Court Week will be the free demonstration of cotton ginning on the Courthouse lawn. County Agent J. A. Wilson is eager to have a large number of farmers see this new process. Two demonstrations will be given on Thursday. One time at 8:30 a. m., and again at 12:30 noon . . . . . Soon Polk County boys and girls will be leaving for college. This is a reminder that a subscription to The Bulletin or Polk County News will be sent to each of them for the full nine months for only $1. This is a bargain. Nothing gives the student more pleasure than news of his family and friends. It helps to keep alive the home ties . . . . Walter P. Chrysler, the noted automobile manufacturer died Sunday at his New York home. He rose from a machinist's job. His success points the way to others, who are eager to work and do more than is required of them. Napoleon said he was a corporal for years . . . . U. S. and Canada do cooperate in defense work . . . . Ambassador Bullitt says we better help England or Hitler will get us . . . . Wendell L. Willkie told the nation on Saturday that he would accept the Republican nomination for president and would like to debate President Roosevelt about the is-

Continued On Back Page

William David Foster

William David Foster, 82, one of the pioneer citizens of Polk County died at his home near Columbus late Saturday night after a long illness. The deceased, a retired farmer, had spent his entire life in this county and was one of its best known citizens.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Williams' family cemetery at 2 p. m., today.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Betty Gosnell, Landrum Route 2; Mrs. Grace Cook, Tryon Route 1; Mrs. Emma Gosnell, Landrum; two sons, Tom Foster, Tryon and Vinie Foster of Columbus; also one brother Charlie Foster of Lynn.

Adams-Millis Wins

Adams-Millis won over Sayles Bleachery 6 to 1 in a Western North Carolina Industrial League baseball game at Harmon Field on Saturday afternoon. Ward and Arledge formed the battery for the locals.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The program will be in charge of Seth M. Vining.

Softball Today

The Bushwhackers and the Kilowatters will play softball at Harmon Field at 6:15 today. Soumerco will play the Browns at Landrum. There is no admission charged to see these games.