Federation Picnic On Saturday August 24

Asheville, Aug. 19.—Postponed from Wednesday, August 14th, on account of heavy rains and flooded highways, the annual district picnic of the Farmers Federation will be held at the Swannanoa test farm on Saturday, August 24th.

The day's program will be essentially the same as originally planned with Dr. D. W. Daniel, Clemson College humorist, as the principal speaker. Dr. Daniel will speak at 11 o'clock in the morning in the test farm assembly hall. W. Kerr Scott, state commissioner of agriculture, also is expected to attend the picnic and address the gathering. James G. K. McClure, federation president, will preside and will be assisted in conducting the numerous entertainment events and contests by Max Roberts, educational director for the farm cooperative.

Major contest of the day will be a singing convention in the afternoon to determine the championship choir and quartet of Western North Carolina. Twelve choirs and 12 quartets, winners in county contests previously held, are expected to compete. Prizes of $10 and $5 are offered for the first and second ranking choirs, and $5 and $3 for the first and second ranking quartets.

Prizes will also be awarded the best specialty performers, the largest family present, the oldest and youngest married couples, the baldest head, the longest beard and the largest truck-load of persons attending.

In addition to these events there
