

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUG. 23, 1940

CURB REPORTER

Harold Culler, Adams-Millis baseball player was injured the other day while practicing ball at Harmon Field. A ball accidentally hit him in the mouth and knocked out some teeth News from Baltimore states that Senator F. P. Bacon is resting well at Johns Hopkins where he is undergoing treatment Nothing is more appreciated than a gift of a box of Tryon Grapes sent by mail or express to some friend living where these grapes do not grow and can't be bought. They are most delicious at this time of year, and local vineyards can pack and mail them. All you have to do is pay for the grapes and give them the name and address of your friend Something never happened before in Polk County according to the memory of local court officials, was the appearance this week of two Negro lawyers at Columbus, representing defendants in the school burning case. The case was still being argued at noon, and was expected to go to the jury by 3 p. m. . . . In order to keep Tryon from getting thirsty while going through a period of growth, the Town is building a dam on the headwaters of their present watershed at Fall Creek in order to have a reservoir of water for dry periods. Tryon uses 18,000,000 gallons of water a month. The new

Continued On Back Page

Soumerco Defeats Kilowatts

Soumerco defeated the Kilowatts in softball at Harmon Field on Thursday afternoon by the score of 8 to 7. It was close throughout the game with the Kilowatts holding a slight lead until the last inning when Soumerco rallied.

The High School won a game from Landrum by default. Today's game between the High School and Browns at Harmon Field at 6:15 will be the last official league game of the year. Come out and see this game. No admission charged.

The playoff will start next week to determine the champions of the league. The Bushwhackers were champions last year. Every team has an equal chance since their previous record does not count.

Cheatham Jackson Sells Farm and Home

F. Cheatham Jackson of the Morgan Chapel section of the Hunting Country has sold his home and farm to George T. Townley of New York and Mellen C. Martin of Chicago. Mr. Townley and Mr. Martin are prominent lawyers. They recently bought the J. J. Barnett place adjoining the Jackson property. They also bought a tract of land on Ridge Road where they plan to build two homes. Sale was made through C. J. Lynch.

Blind Bogey Golf At Country Club

E. C. Rowe announces a Blind Bogey tournament at the Tryon Country Club this weekend. Draw will be between 72 and 82. Entry fee of 25c.