

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURS., AUG. 29, 1940

CURB REPORTER

In reporting the nol prosse of the Burrell-Hines case the other day the Bulletin failed to mention that this was done after a conference and agreement by the counsel of both parties . . . News from Baltimore states that Sena-F. P. Bacon came through his operation nicely at Johns Hopkins. . . . Tryonites have only this week to take in the Vagabond Players show at Old Mill Playhouse, as the show is scheduled to close next week until next summer . . . Among the unusual gifts made to the reporter this week were two large yellow tomatoes from James B. Hester. One of them weighed almost a pound and a half, and had a very delicious flavor. From Mrs. Millie Taylor of Sunny View we received two large leghorn eggs, each weighing over 4 ounces, about twice the size of an average egg. . . . C. D. Brown who has garden on his farm near Columbus dug up a carrot the other day that had the markings of a face on it . . . Down in Florida when the call was issued for aliens to register. two Negroes reported at Ft. Myers. "Are you aliens?" asked the officer. "Yessir," was the reply. "Where were you born? . . . "In Georgia" . . . C. J. Lynch, chairman of the Kiwanis Wheel Chair committee, has ordered two more chairs for the use of temporary

----- Continued On Back Page -----

Band School Closes

Summer, considered vacation time, has brought hard, serious work to the 35 young people from Gaffney, Hendersonville, Saluda and Tryon, who attended Band school from 9 to 12 daily during past six weeks in Saluda. These young people labored faithfully at this 4th summer session of the Band School under the direction of Pat Garnett, music director of Gaffney city schools and B. I. Lands, director of Tryon-Saluda schools band. They have given six open air concerts on Sunday afternoons which served to show the development and improvement.

Those present from Tryon were Jean Derby, cornet; Mariel Derby, clarinet; Thelma Salada, clarinet; Edward Samples, drums; Robert Andrews, drums; Phil Morris, clarinet; Carolyn Slagle, clarinet; Edward Manville, alto.

Those from Saluda were Jack Ward, cornet; H. C. Russell, cornet; Bruce Salley, cornet; Press Patterson, clarinet; Bobby Michael, clarinet; David Salley, baritone; Bill Pace, trombone.

Out of town students lived at Esseola Inn with Mrs. Pat Garnett and Mrs. Claude Vassey as house mothers. Afternoons were given over to practice, fishing parties, ball games, movies.

Building Home

Louis Reneau has started construction of a modern seven room two story house in Landrum for Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood. The residence will be opposite the home of H. O. Prince. Mr. Wood is superintendent of Landrum schools.