

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY. SEPT. 5, 1940

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO MEET NEXT WEEK

The annual meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce for reports and election of officers will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30 at Missildine's Hall. President K. A. Bowen and the board of directors met on Tuesday to make preparations for the meeting. They hope to have every membership paid in full before the annual meeting next Thursday, said Mr. Bowen.

SOFTBALL NEWS

The Bushwhackers defeated the Landrum Sluggers 7 to 6 on Tuesday afternoon. On Wednesday Soumerco eliminated the high school from a chance at the cup by defeating them the second time during the playoff. The score was 8 to 5. Today the Kilowatts will meet the Landrum Browns at Harmon Field at 6 o'clock. Donations are still needed for the playoff expenses. Contributions may be sent to R. E. Brantley, president of the league.

Compliance Completed

The county compliance supervisor reports to the county committee of the AAA that the first compliance check has been completed. There will be a few farmers who will want rechecks but the major part of compliance is completed.

The second check on soil building practices will start October 31st for farms which have not already earned all soil building allowance.

CURB REPORTER

A post card from Miss Clara Edwards at Billings, Montana, says the airplane flight out there was great and that she is enjoying the Yellowstone Park in Wyoming, and saw Old Faithful . . . . The Bulletin has been entered as second class mail at the Tryon Post Office for 13 years. All those original subscribers are invited to pay up now before statements are mailed out this week. Over 1,100 copies of the Bulletin are printed each day . . . . A number of people have called to the reporter's attention the need for watchfulness of our courtesy to all people in public. Courtesy makes Tryon the desirable community it is. Among the things noted here is a friendly spirit, a desire to be helpful, cooperation in meeting people on the narrow country roads, a smoothness of driving without the unnecessary rush that endangers the lives of pedestrians and animals, the beautification of yards and roadsides, the large number of civic minded people who pick up trash thrown down by the thoughtless and less considerate, a desire on the part of so many people to get a lot of pleasure out of living and to help bring happiness to others. It makes Tryon an interesting community . . . . President Roosevelt's trade exchanging Great Britain 50 old ships for naval bases on the British isles for Ameri-

-----Continued on Back Page-----