

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 26, 1940

Walcott At Rotary

Russell Walcott will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin.

Hutchinson Infant

Landrum, Sept. 25.—Last rites for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchinson were conducted yesterday at the cemetery of the Peniel Baptist church in Polk County. The infant died on Monday at the family residence, Landrum, route 1. Besides her parents the infant is survived by two brothers.

FOTTBALL FRIDAY

Tryon high school and Boiling Springs will lock horns in a football battle at Harmon Field on Friday afternoon at 3:30. This is expected to be a closer battle than the one last week in which Tryon won from Inman 21 to 0. Boiling Springs is expected to be hotter but the local boys will try on.

TRYON GARDEN CLUB HEARS ABOUT HERBS

The Tryon Garden club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Milton Dexter and Mrs. W. P. Jackson, joint hostesses.

The speakers were Miss Anne Nash and Mrs. Arthur W. Brintnall, whose subject was "Herbs". Miss Nash described the varieties of herbs, their culture and care, and Mrs. Brintnall discussed the culinary use of herbs and highly amused her audience with quotations from old cook books and recipes.

CURB REPORTER

The unusual happened this week. Many school children cried when their professor had to leave school for the army. Superintendent W. A. Schilleter was more than just the head of the school system. He was a friend of every student who wanted his friendship. By counsel and leadership he inspired them to do better. He didn't stop there. He became one of them and went with them on hikes and picnics, attended their dances and athletic games, their literary society meetings and other school activities. He gave them the fellowship of a friend. That's why there were tears in many eyes. He wasn't going to war. He wasn't going away for good. He was just going to be a major in the army at Columbia, S. C., and would be back occasionally on weekend visits. But those students knew they were going to miss him in many ways. He worked for the interest of the school 12 months in the year and planned for the years to come. Aside from his school interests he was active in many things for the welfare of the community. He was Scoutmaster for 14 years; he taught a Sunday school class, for years he was head of the Polk County Red Cross, he served as president of the Rotary club, he was a leader in the district edu-

---Continued on Back Page---